Ball Corporation is a provider of metal packaging for beverages, personal care and household products, and of aerospace and other technologies and services to commercial and governmental customers. Ball also operates minority-owned joint ventures in the United States, Guatemala, Panama, South Korea and Thailand.

Founded in 1880, the company employs 18,300 people worldwide.
Beverage Packaging North & Central America

- 20 manufacturing plants; 17 with specialty capability
- Product mix:
  - ~33% specialty
  - ~67% standard cans
- Category mix:
  - ~70% CSD & domestic beer
  - ~30% Other, craft beer, imported beer
- Capability to produce 32 can and bottle sizes
- New lines in Ft Worth, TX and Rome, GA starting up in third quarter 2020
- New, multi-line can plants in Glendale, AZ and Pittston, PA starting up in 2021

Beverage Packaging EMEA

- 20 manufacturing plants
- Product mix:
  - ~45% specialty
  - ~55% standard
- Category mix:
  - ~65% CSD/other
  - ~35% beer
- Capability to produce 16 sizes in Europe; 7 can sizes in Russia
- Starting in 2020, the Turkey and Egypt plants are included in the Europe segment results

Beverage Packaging South America

- 12 manufacturing plants
- Product mix:
  - ~65% specialty
  - ~35% standard
- Category mix:
  - ~60% beer
  - ~40% CSD/other
- Capability to produce 7 can sizes
- New plant in Paraguay fully operational

Ball Aerosol Packaging

- 6 aerosol manufacturing plants
- 3 slug manufacturing plants, including 1 JV in Europe
- Product mix:
  - Beauty and Personal Care represents 89% of aluminum aerosol volume
- Aluminum aerosol global industry estimated to be ~6 billion units